CALGARY EXHIBITION

BAD WEATHER BUT GOOD ATTENDANCE

Baseball Tournament.

Calgary, July 11.—The Interwestern Pacific exhibition, which has just closed at Calgary, has been probably the most successful in the history of the association. From a financial standpoint the directors could wish for nothing better. As an attraction to the city itself, it has had the desired effect of bringing in thousands of outsiders from the north, south, east and west. Since the commencement of the exhibition the city has been thronged, hotel accommodation being taxed to the utmost limit.

From a spectator's standpoint the exhibition was good in some respects and very disappointing in others. Considerable rain fell during the first days delaying different events and dampening to some extent the ardor of those on the grounds. Thursday and Friday however, were bright and warm and as a result were record days of the fair, so far as attendance was concerned.

In the baseball tournament Fernie won first honors after a close game with Red Deer in the finals, by a score of ten to seven. In the first game Calgary defeated Golden 17 to 9. Friday morning Fernie defeated Macleod 7 to 6. Red Deer then defeated Calgary 7 to 6, but were in turn defeated in the finals by Fernie.

WEATHER PROBS.
The showers yesterday were chiefly confined to Manitoba and Assiniboia, and were comparatively light. The temperature ranged about 70. There is too hot weather indicated, but the tendency will be towards higher temperatures with fine weather.

Wetaskiwin will erect a new town hall.
Wetaskiwin baseball team played Strathcona on the latter's grounds yesterday evening. The game was a ragged throughout. The final score stood 11 to 7 in favor of the home team.

MARKET FOR EDMONTON COAL

A representative of one of Regina's largest coal dealing firms spent a couple of days in Edmonton this week looking into the coal situation. A member of the firm visited Edmonton some time previously and made a thorough test of our coal. He was greatly pleased with the result and now active steps are being taken to mine Edmonton coal extensively for shipment to Regina and other Assiniboia towns. It is not necessary to dwell on the extent of our coal lands for they are well-known to be practically limitless, but the question of greatest moment is how we are going to lay our coal down in eastern Assiniboia towns at a price to enable us to undersell the Galt coal and thus secure the market. One thing is certain we cannot afford to ship it over the C. P. R. and sell it at anything like the price now being paid for coal at Regina. But there is a natural outlet for our coal and there is every indication that this route will be called into very extensive use in the near future. The coal could be shipped by way of the Saskatchewan to Prince Albert and then over the Prince Albert railroad, two hundred and forty miles to Regina. Coal of a quality no better than the Edmonton product, is sold in Regina for from seven and a half to eight dollars a ton. Our coal at present can be purchased at the mine for a little over a dollar a ton. It could be shipped by steamer to Prince Albert as a nominal cost and from Prince Albert via the C. P. R. branch to Regina. Two dollars a ton should cover the cost of shipping over this line, which added to the cost of the coal at the mine and the cost of getting it to Prince Albert, would leave a very neat margin on the price paid at Regina. But there is another consideration. Instead of shipping the coal by steamer, which will shortly be put on the river, rafts could be constructed, and the coal rafted down to Prince Albert. These rafts could be taken to pieces and sold as lumber at Prince Albert and if we mistake not the price paid for lumber at that point would insure sufficient profit to pay wages to the few men employed in conducting the rafts down the river. Our coal could thus be laid down in Regina at a price considerably below what is now being paid there.

So far no definite steps have been taken towards the practical working out of this scheme, but arrangements are being made and the work will likely be commenced in the very near future. Thus the development of our coal properties is about to be commenced. This development will mean a very great deal to Edmonton and the scheme should be given all possible encouragement.

PRODUCTION OF CLEAN SEED

The investigation into the conditions of the seed trade conducted by the Dominion department of agriculture during the past two years has clearly shown that there is vast room for improvement. The outcome has been the introduction into parliament by the minister of agriculture of a bill to improve the conditions that have been shown to exist. The bill is intended to prohibit the sale of any commercial seeds which may contain seeds of such weeds as wild mustard, penny-cress, ox-eye daisy, perennial sow thistle, ragweed, bindweed and several others and to provide for the grading of all seeds sold as either Grade No. 1, Grade No. 2, Grade No. 3, or screenings. The requirements of each grade are specified, the basis of grading being the per cent of pure, living seed, and in the case of the higher grades, the freedom from specified weed seeds in addition to those above mentioned. The grading is to be done by the seedsmen themselves, but samples may be sent for analysis to the department of agriculture at Ottawa.

The bill has aroused great interest among the seedsmen, as should it become law, much greater care will be required in grading than is at present the case. A deputation of prominent Canadian seedsmen waited upon the minister of agriculture a week or two ago to protest against the passing of the bill as drafted, claiming that some of the clauses were impracticable and that, if enforced, would cause undue restriction and possible suspension of trade. They claim that it is impossible to obtain in sufficient quantity seed of the higher grades, owing to the prevalence of weed seeds. Many of these it is impracticable to clean out on account of their similarity in size and weight to the clover seeds. Much of the seed received from the producers is vile with weed seeds, and although it may be greatly improved by cleaning, cannot by any means be made perfect.

The demand this year has been much greater than in any previous year for the best re-cleaned seed, due largely to the preaching of the gospel of good seed by the agricultural department. In fact, it was stated by one of the leading seedsmen, that as far as demand for good seed was concerned, there had been more improvement in the last two years than in the previous twenty. Unfortunately, however, the quality received from the producers has not improved. Should the proposed bill come into force, as is almost sure to be the case sooner or later, they are determined to differentiate greatly in price in favor of clean samples when making their purchases from the growers. To a certain extent this is done at present, but a special premium is to be put on high grades.

This is as it should be, because there is no excuse for the production of clover seed foul with weed seeds. The weeds most common in red clover fields are, Canada thistle, curled dock, ragweed and white cockle; while wild mustard, ox-eye daisy, sow thistle and several others are found less frequently. In Alsike fields, false flax, white cockle, sheep sorrel, curled dock, Mayweed and lamb's quarters are frequently found. All of these weeds may be readily seen while growing, and before the seed ripens is the proper time to remove them. They may be either spaded or pulled, and removed from the field. This system is practised by some of our most successful growers of clover seed, and when once given a trial is found to be not only practicable, but also thorough, fairly rapid, and very profitable.

It may be claimed that to do this where weeds are very plentiful, is out of the question; that it would take a great deal of time and the tramping would injure the crop. A field in which the weeds are too plentiful to be handled in this way should not under any consideration be devoted to the production of clover for seed. It is absolutely folly to grow seed which is ten or fifteen per cent weed seeds as there is no surer way of widely disseminating weeds than to have the seeds mixed with otherwise good grades of small commercial seeds, such as those of the grasses and clovers. To sell seeds adulterated with ten per cent of sand would be regarded by many people as criminal, but how much more criminal should it be regarded to sell seed containing ten per cent of noxious weed seeds. In the former case the only injury is an increase in price in the latter, the enhanced price of the good seed is a small matter compared with the injury done by the introduction of new weed pests.

It is impossible to effectively enforce legislation to prevent the growth of impure seed. We must teach the producers to see the folly of growing anything but the best. Seedsmen find it necessary to make differences in price in order to protect themselves, and there is no doubt that the increased price for good seed will more than repay the extra trouble involved in its production. It is therefore, to every farmer's interest to grow only the highest quality, not only because it is a grower's interest to neighbor farmers to continue the production of weed seeds, but also because he is sure to be amply rewarded for any increased trouble.

Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition

The Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition to be held on the 20th to 25th of this month has become one of the permanent institutions of the country. In addition to the very large amount of money contributed annually to the prize list, an enormous sum has been devoted to the stabling for the stock and buildings for the various exhibits. Apart from the great stimulus given to the breeding of pure-bred live stock of all kinds, the encouragement of the grain growing, dairying, horticultural and other kindred interests, the work done by the Winnipeg exhibition in advertising the resources of the West has not been equalled by any other agency. To it, more than to any other single agency belongs the credit of first attracting the attention of our neighbors to the south of us. Year after year the Northwestern States were flooded with advertising matter by the Winnipeg Industrial followed by the inauguration of special excursions from the neighboring states till finally the tide of immigration began to flow our way.

Dumont in Canada

An exchange says: Gabriel Dumont, who was Louis Riel's right hand man in the rebellion in Northwest Canada eighteen years ago, has returned to the territory from the United States, where he has been living since his chief was executed, after the suppression of the trouble. Dumont in his younger days bore a great reputation as a scout and hunter and many romantic stories are told of his feats and adventures in the backwoods. He was outlawed for a long time after the Riel rebellion. He proved himself, beyond his experienced knowledge of the woods and streams, a military strategist of great talent, and he gave the Dominion forces much trouble in 1885.

WETASKIWIN

Times, July 9th.

According to J. H. Walker's government measure, 1.74 inches of rain fell during the month of June.

Charles McManus, of the Revillon Freres departmental store, Edmonton, is spending his vacation with his parents here.

A party of C. P. R. surveyors commenced to survey a line east from the switch just north of the grain mill this week. The survey will likely extend to Saskatoon or Battleford. A Y has also been staked out.

The first issue of the monthly journal to be published here by the Rev. Martin Beech will make its appearance in a few days. It is a religious paper in the Scandinavian language, and will be called Ebonzer.

An adjourned meeting of the license commissioners was held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week with Messrs. Burris, of Lacombe, Archer, of Innisfail, and Brown of Wetaskiwin, present. The application of Henry E. Teeple, of Morningstar, for hotel license was recommended.

Much sympathy is being extended to E. E. Violet in the trouble he is now passing through. Mrs. Violet, for some time has not been in good health, and an operation was performed Tuesday. As the patient was in a very precarious condition, she was taken to Edmonton hospital Wednesday evening.

The debris caused by the recent fire is now being removed. We understand the Criterion and Briard Hotels will be rebuilt at once, with brick in both cases. Mr. West and Mr. Hvie have not yet decided what action they will take in the matter, but it is the general hope that they will again enter the commercial field on a larger scale than ever.
